Fastweb's New Student Resources Highlight 2019 Scholarship and Internship Opportunities

Weston, MA (January XX, 2019) – Fastweb (www.fastweb.com), the leading website for scholarship and financial aid information and a member of the Monster network, has released new resources for 2019 that highlight scholarship and internship opportunities for students at all education levels.

For students seeking ways to pay for school, Fastweb's 2019 College Scholarships resource outlines a wide range of scholarship opportunities in various educational fields including; engineering, technology, medicine, environmental studies and more.

For students seeking career experience, Fastweb's 2019 College Internships resource outlines internship opportunities from leading companies to help students gain valuable career skills and experience. Fastweb's Part-Time Jobs functionality, powered by Monster, also matches students with opportunities in top industries including; retail, childcare and the food industry.

"We provide students scholarship, internship and part-time job matches they can pursue to help them achieve their college objectives," said Mark Nelson, Vice President, Fastweb. "The opportunities in these resources have been added to our industry-leading database to show students even more relevant matches."

Fastweb encourages students who have not yet filled out the 2018-19 FAFSA application to do so now to initiate the federal student aid process. Understanding the financial aid process is crucial for all students. More information on the financial aid process and the FAFSA application can be found online under Fastweb's Financial Aid section. For more helpful free online resources, visit Fastweb.com or download the Fastweb app.
